

VETERANS DAY 2022

The St. Thomas More Knights of Columbus traditionally put out flags along the Skyway on patriotic holidays. After the Camp Fire, they couldn't continue because their flags had been consumed in the Camp Fire. At a recent meeting, the Knights approved funds to replace the flags. Early in the morning on Veterans Day the Knights put out flags between Billie Rd. and Maxwell Dr. on the Skyway. Once again, the tradition continues:

Edd Boyd and Dave Young place flags at intervals; Clare Lemire and her dad, D.J. Lemire (Grand Knight), along with Clint Thomas and his daughter, Hailee, pose after posting nearly 60 flags. Volunteer Knights not in the picture: John Thomas and Jim Collins
